The Bible is filled with promises from God. Each and every one are for our benefit and His glory.

Let us claim them in faith with hope.

Above is a promise for each day of the year (with an extra helping) from every book of the Bible!

This is not a comprehensive list of all the promises of God. There are over 3,000 promises in Scripture!

I encourage you to take hold of the promises listed above and continue to search the Word of God for more - meditating, memorizing and praying into existence all the promises that are tucked away and available to you as a believer.
